this book received with such favour and indulgence by the public is not written through any vain desire of obtaining celebrity it is a work of patience and of faith a flower placed on the altar of mary with the simple heart of a pilgrim of the good old times a better historian the virgin undoubtedly deserved but one more sincerely desirous to see her name glorified and her devotion extended she could not find the history of the queen of angels the mystical rose of the new law is a theme so poetical in itself that it naturally calls forth the most beautiful and refined ideas as well as the most dignified expressions of language it is an oriental recital reflecting the manners the glories and the sites of asia and so can it appear strange that the style should be impressed with an eastern tint catholic literature in this country is not yet rich in works of a historical character and though not a few have appeared evincing great research and worthy of a high place there was still wanting a popular element which genius alone could supply by lending its charm to the often dry details of the historian the devotion to the blessed virgin in this country from its settlement to the present day was a theme which had been briefly touched upon by one or two writers still it was a field which the late lamented author of the following pages entered with all the zeal and devotion of his ardent and impassioned character and as a necessary consequence he gave his work the stamp of his particular genius few more gifted writers have appeared among us than xavier donald macleod and in undertaking his work material was contributed by his numerous friends the writer of this one who had enjoyed that friendship from boyhood rejoicing to see him about to take up a subject so worthy of his talents furnished him an abundant material which he had collected and feels now perhaps too great a pleasure in his privilege in having contributed to so noble a work as that here presented to the catholic public o blessed confidence o safe refuge mother of god and our mother st anselm of canterbury 1033 1109 doctor of the church what is not generally known and only infrequently studied is the role of our lady over the centuries as a catechist teacher of the faith in a very real sense primary teacher because she is mother of god and mother of the church and faithful if any one factor might be singled out for the very high level of faith and religious practice in medieval merry england merry because mary s dowry because consecrated to mary as her possession and property it is this marian catechesis only when england deliberately rejected mary did it cease to be the happy place it once was unfortunately english colonization of other peoples took place only after the repudiation of mary by england that is why this catechetical work is especially valuable for the faithful and those who are seeking faith in america and other english speaking cultures it will bring to their attention precisely what is central to catechetics and so often missing the presence of mary mother and teacher it will make perfectly clear why we need not fewer marian sanctuaries but many many more in all parts of the country where this quiet but so real and profound influence of the marian principle of the church will be felt at every level it is my prayer and hope that those who read and study this work will find the same inspiration and stimulus that i found in having the privilege to read the manuscript before publication we are much indebted to brother anthony josemaria pasquale a franciscan tertiary of the immaculate and gifted scholar for the effort he has expended to find qualified contributors and to offer so well edited a book to the general public from the foreword by father peter m fehlner fi theologian sponsor of the international symposium on marian coredemption
