the fall of capitalism and the rise of islam provides a critical analysis of the current financial crisis in the us and the world at large it concludes that the current crisis could very well be a sign of failure of the underlying system of capitalism the book shows that the system of capitalism contains serious faults and defects at the core theory level economic and financial crisis periodically occur whenever these defects are triggered by various conditions and political decisions during the life of capitalism the collapse of financial institutions the crash of the housing market the evaporation of trillions of dollars the creation of virtual unreal wealth and the decline of productivity are symptoms of the potential failure of the ideology of capitalism this failure has serious impact on the life quality of billions of people around the world who suffer from poverty hunger health insecurity lack of education and serious inhuman conditions the world order under capitalism witnessed multiple world wars political and economic instability colonialism absence of peace deprivation of justice and polarization of wealth and power this book predicts a potential crash and collapse of the world order under the pressure of a failing capitalism concurrent to the decline and potential collapse of capitalism the book makes an account of another global phenomenon namely the second rise of islam the rise of islam similar to the first one that lasted for thirteen hundred years is a comprehensive rise that brings up the economic system together with the political system and the moral system together with the legal system it is much needed and sought to introduce to the world a system full of justice fairness and geared toward productivity and human righteousness the new rise of islam is argued to be in the best interest of the human societies around the world and that the propagated fear of this rise is unfounded the book provides a detailed description of the economic system and the political economy of islam it provides compelling evidence that the islamic political economy characterized by sustained productivity and wealth distribution guarantees the satisfaction of the basic needs of a human the islamic political economy integrates several mechanisms for natural distribution of wealth while it maintains a high level of productivity through the inhibition of usury hoarding and exploitation the fall of capitalism and the rise of islam makes extensive references to a score of historians scholars and scientists who provide a fair testimony of the islamic civilization and the ideology of islam

this book is concerned about the earliest period of islam when it first appeared in the seventh century the rise of islam gives an indispensable information regarding prophet muhammad who carried the noble message from heaven to earth the age of the first four caliphs who succeeded the prophet and bear the responsibility after him is exclusively illustrated such period was the backbone other subsequent enlightening ages were based upon these ages witnessed the rising of islamic civilization that took the lead of the world for some centuries research paper postgraduate from the year 2009 in the subject theology historic theology ecclesiastical history grade a prairie bible institute course history of the growth of christianity language english abstract muhammad ibn abdullah the last prophet and founder of islam is one of the most influential people who walked on this earth by the time of the prophet s death at the age of sixty two he had brought into existence a dynamic movement that would carry islam through the centuries and across the continents birthing empires transforming the sciences and challenging economic cultural and political systems considering the religion of islam one may wonder who this muhammad the last prophet was and how his instructions were shaped by the cultural economical social and religious environment in which he lived the other questions that may rise are how this small movement could become within centuries the dominant religion of the mediterranean and why christianity was not able to stop it this essay will propose that it was due to the lack of unity among christians on the one hand and on the other hand to muhammad s attractive instructions about brotherhood and solidarity among his followers fervour faith simplicity of islam moral values and the use of the sword that islam augmented so rapidly and displaced christianity

this classic biography is not a religious text designed to either celebrate or denigrate islam it looks at mohammed as a towering figure of culture and politics a man who achieved the extraordinary uniting disparate arab tribes into a more cohesive whole this book remains an important work for anyone wishing to understand the roots of one of the most intractable sociopolitical divides between east and west muslim and christian still haunting the world today author david s margoliouth 1858 1940 a professor of arabic at oxford university worked from primary arabic texts and omitted all anecdotes that are obviously or most probably fabulous resulting in a clear headed history of a highly contentious moment in time using a multidisciplinary approach that utilizes psychoanalysis and normative sociology the author discusses the implications for the theory and study of groups and group formation in history via the life and work of muhammad warrior statesman and messenger of god and the development and rise of islam during his lifetime as a protestant theologian and disciple of renowned critics of christianity albert schweitzer and martin werner the author wanted since long to contribute to the breakthrough of their resolute nontrinitarian position which has throughout the twentieth century by all and every western christian university theology been silenced by pretending tacitly and tenaciously the non existence of their strong argument eaton ranges over all the important aspects of that community s history whether political and social or cultural and religious this study must rank among the finest contributions to south asian scholarship to appear for some while this volume explores the dominant types of relationships between muslim minorities and states in different parts of the world the challenges each side faces and the cases and reasons for exemplary integration religious tolerance and freedom of expression by bringing together diverse case studies from europe africa and asia this book offers insight into the nature of state engagement with muslim communities and muslim community responses towards the state in turn this collection offers readers the opportunity to learn more about what drives government policy on muslim minority communities muslim community policies and responses in turn and where common ground lies in building religious tolerance greater community cohesion and enhancing muslim community state relations this work uses social movement theory to explain the increased political power of islam in sudan this book examines the lives of the key men and women from islamic history this book on islam and islamic cultures focuses on the practice of islam among indigenous people of west africa the author shows the importance of the sub region in the development of islam by documenting the long history of the religion in black africa new ground is broken by analyzing the increasing impact of globalization and economic underdevelopment on the islamic experience in west africa production and the exploitation of resources together with its companion manufacturing and labour examines the economic basis of the early islamic world looking at the organization of extractive and agricultural operations manufacturing processes and labour relations mining stock raising agriculture and irrigation are the themes of this volume the work is based on both literary sources and archaeology and is concerned with the extraction of raw materials and production based on natural resources and domesticated animals some classic articles are included because they defined the issues and deserve to be available due to their continuing significance these are balanced by state of the art studies and by others translating and commenting on important texts in areas where analytic studies have yet to be carried out this body of work provides a sense of the intensity of exploitation of natural resources in early islamic times of how labour and energy intensive mining agriculture and irrigation were and of the interrelationship of different sectors of the economy
